1) Introduction:
In Ayurveda the role of cosmetology important. In know day’s cosmetology work of improving the appearance of a customer’s face, hair, using make-up and beauty treatments as ayurveda the concept of beauty has an age old origin skin-twacha is the term for skin in Ayurved. Twacha cover of the exposed part of the body the sense of touch, over the entire body through skin. Healthy person with a well formed flesh which is firm, the skin is correspondingly firm, glowing hair is also closely related and part of beauty of the human beings. Mind is also closely related with hair so mental tension is the commonest cause of hair fall. Acharyas of Ayurveda state that the function of Ayurvedic herb’s is to purify blood and eliminate vitiated doshas (Vata, Pitta, Kapha) that causes skin disorders and other diseases. Ayurveda believes that all living beings have the panchamahabhoota as it is components, same is for skin. It is the seat of sparshanIndriya (A tactile sensory organ skin is also present Bharjaka pitta that Regulates the temperature of the living body and absorbs all local Medicinal application’s the (complexion Chaaya of (Lusture/Prabha) of our skin is also conferred to the skin, the herb’s Ayurvedic use in various forms such as Lepa, abhyanga, gandusha and combined drug can be found in Ayurvedic inscriptions like Chandana, Nagkshera, Padmaka, Yastimadhu, Manjistha, Sariva etc. that means in this way Ayurveda will be very useful and precious knowledge regarding cosmetology which is very useful even in day to day Practices.

“Role of Ayurveda in Cosmatology” :

As per cosmetic approach Ayurveda is Related to Healthy status of the Body and mind Ayurveda gives equal importance to Beauty as well as Health.

A) DinacharyaPalan :

Ayurvedic text prescribed for the both perspective health as well as beauty. follow daily routine and some important procedures keep the person fit or Healthy and young for a long time. these procedures also increase beauty of hair, skin, eyes etc. that great cosmetic value they delay the old age too, In dincharya following procedures are includes.

Dincharya - The Ayurvedic daily Routine

Ayurvedic medicine that looks at the cycle of nature and bases daily activities around these cycles. Among the classical Ayurveda textbooks, the one close to my Heart is ‘AshtangaHridaya’. It is written by Acharya Vagbhata in Ashtangahrdaya textbook in second chapter with Dinacharya or daily Regimen.

[Din⇒ Day,   Charya⇒ Regimen]

Daily Recommendations Practice :

1) (Wake up in the morning) before 6 a.m.
2) Eliminate and empty your bowel and bladder (Don’t strain), If you have problem you show taking Triphala Churna before bedtime at Night.
3) Wash your face, using natural products.
4) Brush your teeth and scrape your tongue and drink a glass of warm water.
5) Perform a self massage (Abhyanga) by using warm oils. After 10-15 minutes massage then take a shower.
6) Perform yoga asanas and have a go at pranayama that are simple breathing practices.
7) Eat light Breakfast - Eat a small amount, but make it big enough to get you through to lunch without needing a snack. Quantity may very based on body type (before 8-9 am.)
Midday dinacharya :-

1) Lunch:
   Relax and make it the Largest Meal of the day.
   Brief Rest on the Left side & Light walking (10-15 min.)
   after Lunch to facilitate digestion. (Between 10 am. to 2 pm.)

2) Evening Dinacharya (2 pm - 6 pm)
   1) Supper : the lighter and earlier, the better
   2) Evening yoga, breathing exercise, and medication.
   3) Go to bed by 10 pm.

B) Rutucharya Palan:
   To maintaining the Health as well as Beauty the important role of Rutucharya explained in various text book of Ayurveda and also aahara and vihara mentioned for the protection from excessive cold and heat during that season show carefulness and awareness about beauty and health.

C) Aachara Rasayana Palana:
   According to Ayurveda’s complete Beauty includes mental, physical and spiritual well being. Acharya’s gives highly importance to rasayana therapy it’s unique concept of Ayurveda and have a higher cosmetic sense helps to keep the person younger and attractive till the old age that means maintain yuvavastha, and delay vridhavastha and cure change of olderage.

Discussion :-

Cosmetology is one of the major emerging branches of industry, researcher and general public health and know it’s part of life. Synthetic cosmetics can cause adverse reaction like skin reaction, irritation, allergies, etc so due to maintain health mind and body use herbal cosmetology which play important role in keep healthy and beautiful mind and health and discover the beauty within you with the help of Ayurvedic Medicine e.g. VarnyaMahakashya, Chandana, Punnaga, MadhukaManjishta, Sariva, Payasyasita, Lata gives complexion these drugs indicates the importance of cosmetology during that period and also follow the daily dincharya, Rutucharya, Achar-Vichara rules to maintain the Health and beauty of an indicates. According to their prakriti Ayurveda play important role in cosmetics. Ayurvedic cosmetics range from skin cream, lotion, nourishing skin cream, hair care preparations viz. paste, hair fixer, hair gel, hair oil, shampoo, Anti dandruff, conditioner, colorants etc. Ayurvedic text also explain some haircare preparation like- Bhrangadi, Madhukadilepa, KumariAmalakighanalepa, Nilabragadaitailam etc.

Conclusions :

Cosmetics as external beauty has gained a lot of Attention and demand in today’s world because every one wants to look beautiful and attractive but todays synthetic cosmetics causes skin health issues and irritation to mind and physical (Skin / Body) problems so it’s not complegely safe manner but It use Ayurvedic cosmetics and also some rules such as aahar, Vihar, aushad, daily and seasonal Regeman enhance the internal as well as external beauty i.e. ayurveda emphasizes on external and internal beauty so Role of Ayurveda in cosmetology is important, beauty management through Ayurveda there is no side-effect and gives lot’s of benefits, Ayurvedic medicine help to life modifications told in Ayurvedic granthas and text to which are related to cosmetics.
